Ladies Outing – Part II - Worldly Watermelon Cuisine and Wine Tastings with Johnny
Friday, January 26, 2024
2:00 – 4:30 PM

Host: Johnny Carino- Chef

Brooklyn-born Johnny grew up in a very close Italian family. After his mom died when he was twelve Johnny would stand on a stool and watch his Southern Italy grandmothers and grandfathers cook.

His love for food has continued to this day. Johnny has opened over one hundred restaurants around the world and in the US.

Johnny Carino has been a featured celebrity chef across the US with well-respected cooking class schools.

Johnny is the founding chef of the Johnny Carino's restaurant chain and starred for seven years in his PBS cooking show "break me off a piece of that."

Johnny is a well-known private chef based in St Simons Island Georgia. He's a mentor to the Greenville South Carolina school district, an Ambassador Chef with the Seafood Nutrition Partnership, and a public speaker.
